6HOME BUILDING ACT REQUIREMENTS

Building work that involves residential building work (within the meaning of the Home Building Act 1989) must not be carried out unless the principal certifying authority for the development to which the work relates:

- (a) in the case of work to be done by a licensee under that Act:
- (i) has been informed in writing of the licensee's name and contractor licence number, and
 - (ii) is satisfied that the licensee has complied with the requirements of Part 6 of that Act.

A certificate purporting to be issued by an approved insurer under Part 6 of the Home Building Act 1989 that states that a person is the holder of an insurance policy issued for the purposes of that Part is, for the purposes of this clause, sufficient evidence that the person has complied with the requirements of that Part.

- (b) in the case of work to be done by any other person:
- (i) has been informed in writing of the person's name and owner-builder permit number, or
 - (ii) has been given a declaration, signed by the owner of the land, that states that the reasonable market cost of the labour and materials involved in the work is less than the amount prescribed for the purposes of the definition of owner-builder work in section 29 of the Act.

Has the principal certifying authority been advised in accordance with the above requirements?

Yes No

If Council has been appointed as the principal certifying authority and the above requirements were not satisfied at the time of issue of the construction certificate, insert:

Licensee's Name

Address

and Contractor Licence No.

or Owner-Builder Permit No.

and attach information as specified in (a) (ii) or (b) (ii) above.

7PRINCIPAL CERTIFYING AUTHORITY DECLARATION
